Your itinerary

Travelling to Italy, COVID-19 measures:

Currently, movements to/from EU countries are allowed without the need of justification. Therefore, travellers from the Schengen area are not obliged to carry out a quarantine period on arrival.

The only requirement remained is to fulfill a self-declaration available at the following address:

https://www.esteri.it/mae/resource/doc/2020/08/modulo\_rientro\_da\_estero\_26\_08\_20\_inglese.pdf

Therefore, Different requirements and certifications need to be provided depending on your country of departure and previous travels.

Normally, it is required to fill out a digital Passenger Locator form (or, in case of lack of necessary technology, a self-declaration). Also you need to prove that you have undergone a molecular or antigenic test, carried out by means of a swab, with a negative result. The test must be taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.

Please, check your position as a traveller to Italy on this link where measures and rules are clearly explained.

Further informations can be reached to :

Bologna Airport (BLQ) has established a list of rules and procedures in order to contain the spread of contagions. They are the following:

- All people – passengers and staff – must always wear protective masks in all internal and common areas of the airport;
- Body temperature of all people will be measured before accessing the terminal and on arrival at the airport. In case the temperature was found equal or above 37.5° degrees, more assessments will be carried out;
- Sanitizing gel dispensers are available in many areas of the terminal. Passengers are encouraged to use them frequently;
- Social distancing measures of at least one meter from one person to another have to be strictly followed during all airport's procedures. Signposting applied on the floor will provide assistance in maintaining the proper distance;

- To further guarantee social distancing, the use of some benches and chairs have been forbidden;
- In order to protect passengers and airport's staff, plexiglass panels have been implemented at boarding gates and on check-in counters;
- All areas are cleaned and sanitized, and all airport's premises adopt high-efficiency filters in more crowded areas;
- Finally, inbound and outbound passenger flows have been separated by differentiated paths.

It is suggested to wear a protective mask also outside the airport, when walking down the street or travelling on public transportation.
